Silverstone Parish Council have received the attached grant application from Silverstone News & Views - Application ref: SPC03/25002

The Clerk can confirm that the applicants have included all the required documentation, except for their bank statements. The policy states:

- Latest financial accounts and evidence of need - 3 months statements for all accounts and investments (must be in name of organisation).

However, as a new entity, at the time of submission they were only been able to produce statements for 2 months - as RFO, on the date of submission the Parish Clerk accepts what has been submitted.

All councillors are asked to review the above application form and complete the included Evaluation Form prior to attending the meeting, unless they are declaring an interest, in which case this MUST be declared and bring their completed Evaluation Form with them as their prompt for any discussion.

A copy of the councillors completed evaluation form MUST be sent to the Parish Clerk.

Councillors are asked: To resolve the Grant Application from Silverstone News & Views
